Panorama Tower, 1101 Brickell Avenue, Miami, Florida, USA / Completed: 2018 / Architect(s): Moshe Cosicher AIA; FONS Inc. / Height: 868 ft (265 m) / Floors: 82 / Architectural Style: Modernism

Panorama Tower is a mixed-use 82-story skyscraper situated in Miami, Florida, United States. It is located in the Brickell district of Downtown Miami. It was originally approved by the City of Miami and the Federal Aviation Administration in 2006 but was put on hold due to the Great Recession. The project was revived in 2012 when owner Tibor Hollo hired Moshe Cosicher, AIA Architect, to redesign the project.

> In 2013, the project was revised; the 868-foot (265 m) tower is stated to include residential, hotel, retail, and office space. When completed, it will be the tallest building in Miami, but may soon thereafter be overtaken by various other towers, including two of their own projects (The Towers by Foster + Partners and One Bayfront Plaza). It took over the Four Seasons Hotel Miami as tallest when it topped out in late 2017. The project is the first development in the City of Miami to be funded in part by EB-5 visas. While the entire site was technically addressed 1101 Brickell Avenue, the building will actually be located on the back of the lot, behind two existing
