Florida East Coast Realty (FECR) Chief Operating Officer Austin Hollo has been named to the inaugural 2026 Miami Titan 100, recognizing him among the top C-level executives leading businesses and shaping industries across the region.

The 2026 Miami Titan 100 brings together 100 executives representing a diverse range of industries, including real estate, healthcare, construction, information technology, financial services, and nonprofit organizations. Collectively, the honorees and their companies generate more than $45 billion in annual revenue and employ more than 156,000 people across Miami and beyond.

“It is an honor to be included in the inaugural Miami Titan 100, alongside such a strong group of business leaders,” said Hollo. “Miami continues to evolve as a major business and economic center, and I am proud to contribute to that growth through my work at FECR and through the organizations that are helping shape the future of our community.”

Hollo is actively involved in organizations focused on Miami’s economic development, education, and community. He serves on the Advisory Boards for Florida International University’s Tibor and Sheila Hollo School of Real Estate and Center for Leadership, the Board of Directors and New World Center Committee (Chair) for the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Directors and Officers Cabinet for the Miami-Dade Beacon Council, and the Board of Directors and Young Leaders Executive Committee for United Way Miami.

The Titan 100 recognition adds to Hollo’s growing list of professional and community honors. Most recently, he received the Miami-Dade Beacon Council’s Inaugural One2Watch Award. He was also named a South Florida Business Journal “40 Under 40” honoree in 2024 and received United Way Miami’s Inaugural Next-Gen Philanthropist Award that same year.

The Titan 100 nationwide network includes more than 3,000 honorees across 12 markets. Collectively, Titan 100 companies represent more than $664 billion in combined annual revenue, highlighting the scale and influence of the executives recognized through the program.
